THE 1940 HYAKEM IS DEDICATED

TO THE STUDENTS OF CWCE

FOREWORD

Heaving the traditional sigh of relief, the annual staff sees its work drawing to a close. It has been the objective of the 1940 HYAKEM staff to capture the high moments of the '39-'40 college year, to put into a more lasting form the memories of events and activities which have made this year different from all others. With the hope that we can make the year 1939-40 relive in the future for you, we present the 1940 HYAKEM.

The Hyakem is a combination of a family album and a diary. It leaves with us pictures of our friends and schoolmates with whom we have enjoyed fraternizing and working. It leaves pictures of buildings in which we have lived and labored. In years to come, we will refer to them and enjoy in memory many of the old events and associations. It is a vitalized book of history for everyone who has played a part therein. It leaves a record of a year of academic affairs, recreational activities, and social events. We cherish the memories that are called to our minds of comradeship and associations. We, who continue on in the college circles, welcome those who are being graduated into the professional life beyond the college. We have enjoyed your associations. May the years ahead bring us many pleasant reunions.

MUSIC

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

With Wayne S. Hertz as head of the department, music activities increased again this year. A major improvement was the annexation of an entire Music building, the former Edison school. Here are now housed all practice rooms, class rooms and departmental offices. Another factor in the expansion was the purchase of a complete recording device for transcription and remedial purposes.

In the capacities of vice-president of Vocal Music in the National School Voice Association and vice-president in charge of vocal music of Region One of the Music Educators National Conference, Mr. Hertz enlisted the services of the department in staging the first annual Choral Clinic of that region on this campus, to which directors of the Northwest states came, for discussion and suggestions.

At the beginning of the school year, the band, choir, and orchestra in cooperation with the municipal officials of the city of Ellensburg, presented a program in the "Meet Your Neighbor" series over radio station KFPY, Spokane.

In the spring the department sponsored the second annual Competition Festival of the Central Washington School Music Association. Over 1000 high school musicians attended the two-day meeting.

As a whole, the department furnished varied programs for local clubs and churches. Innovations this year were the Student Recital, the offering of music scholarships to promising high school seniors, and the use of student directors in the various organizations.

ORCHESTRA

Central Washington's symphony orchestra, under the direction of Milton Steinhardt, has contributed greatly to the musical life of the 1940 College year. During the year, they have presented three concerts, two of them forming Assembly programs. Solosists with the Orchestra concerts included Wayne S. Hertz, baritone; Walter Bull, organist, and Helen Mason, soprano. During the Spring quarter, they made a trip to Yakima to play before the Yakima Women's Musical club.

BAND

The forty-five piece concert and marching band, under Cloice E. Meyers, director, presented three concerts on the Campus, and made three out-of-town trips, one to Yakima, Toppenish, Wapato, and Zillah high schools, another to Cle Elum, and the third to the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Festival, where they marched in the parade and presented afternoon concerts. Playing at sports events was also included on the calendar. Drum majorettes led the group through formations at football games.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

Under the direction of Mr. Hertz, the sixty-voice a cappella choir gave several campus concerts, aided in the presentation of Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," read the numbers for the Choral Clinic and made three publicity tours. The first of these was to Pasco, Kennewick, and Prosser high schools, with the second to the Apple Blossom Festival. The third was a tour of Puget Sound cities, with 14 concerts sung in North Bend, Monroe, Snohomish, Everett, Renton, Highline, Tacoma, Puyallup and Sumner. From the choir this year were chosen men's and women's glee clubs and octets, a mixed double octet and a male quartet, to aid in program presentation.

DANCE DRAMA

1939 FOOTBALL

Football folk gathered 'round the hot stove innumerable times last fall to prattle glibly about the 1939 edition of Wildcat gridmen, for Coach Nicholson and Mabey produced a smooth-functioning machine.

Opening against Gonzaga Frosh, Central steamrolled to a 13-to-0 victory. Power was the keynote of the attack.

Late in the final quarter Bob Coy boomed through and blocked a St. Martin's punt. Goodman pounced upon the wild pigskin for 7 precious points and a Wildcat victory.

Pacific Lutheran college's supposedly bomb-proof aerial circus was the Cats' next prey. The gladiators left town the victims of a 27 to 6 whitewash.

What is up must come down, so the Cats tasted their first defeat at the hands of the ever-pesky E. W. C. Savages. A blocked punt spelled defeat.

A plunging, twisting squad of C. W. C. E. gridmen invaded Yakima Armistice Day and romped to a 26 to 0 win over Eastern Oregon Normal.

W. W. C. Played the roll of "the little heartbreaker" as they sloshed through mud and water to win the season's finale from the Cats. Score, Vikings 12, Central 0.

ATHLETIC AWARD

HONORARY CAPTAIN

Bob Carr, fiery leader of the Wild Kittens, who cavorted at end for the Central Eleven during the highly-successful 1939 campaign, was voted honorary captain by his teammates. Carr, lightest man on the starting combination, was a bulwark on offense and defense. Coach Nicholson will have a hard time finding a man to fill Carr's shoes.

"MOST INSPIRATIONAL PLAYER"

Bobby Miller, the Wildcats' capable field general from Hoquiam, received the "Most Inspirational Player" award. Miller, 168 pounds of football dynamite, is a sophomore, having two more years in which to spark the Wildcat aggregations. Miller performed Yoeman's chores when it came to blocking. Time and again he ripped open huge holes for the other Wildcat backs.

J. B. MOSER SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Bentley Kern, "Old Alabam" won the J. B. Moser scholarship award, which goes to the gridiron man having the highest scholastic achievement during the season. Kern, who hails from Ellensburg, is a sophomore. He is an aggressive guard, and will be back to help the Cats next season.

ALLEN GOODMAN, LITTLE ALL-AMERICAN

Allen Goodman, 170 pounds of gridiron dynamite, was picked at end on the "Little All-American" second team. Williams, New York's point-rating prognosticator, made the selection. Goodman rightly deserves the position, for he was the spearhead of the Wildcat defense and an important cog in Coach Nicholson's offensive wheels. Allen's was the highest national rating received by any gridiron cavorter in the Northwest last season. He is a junior and hails from Centralia.

BASKETBALL

Handed the title when their Pacific Lutheran College rivals were trounced in a startling upset by the fourth-place EWC Savages, the CWCE Wildcats took sole possession of the 1940 Washington intercollegiate basketball championship. It was a season-long battle between the Lutes and the Cats for the coveted position.

The title was the first undisputed championship for a Nicholson-trained club in five years.

The choice bacon was won and lost innumerable times during the hectic Winco race. After taking a long early-season lead, the Wildcats split two series with PLC and dropped back into a virtual tie with the Lutherans. Then the Lutherans suffered two reversals. The Vikings invaded the local lair and defeated the Cats twice, which set the stage for the Savages' victory.

Coach Red Reese of EWC, in a moment of beneficence, realizing he had been handed the title in both football and basketball the last three years, decided to pay up the old war debt.

TRACK

Many new faces greeted Coach George Mabee's initial track call, but such smooth veterans as Jones, dash man, Orchard, 440 ace, Ford, mile king, and Martin, red-thatched timber topper, also reported for action. Mabee built his 1940 thinclad squad around these four blue-ribbon cavorters.

After a triangular, preparatory meet with St. Martin's and Pacific Lutheran college, Coach Mabee spotted the weakness, which more than once throughout the tough schedule, spelled disaster for the Wildcats. "We are weak in the weight events," stated Coach Mabee.

However, the weak spots were strengthened, and the Wildcats did all right for themselves in the conference meet held on W. W. C. campus.

BASKETBALL AWARDS

LEE SCOTT AWARD

Don Sorenson, a cagy kid who forsook potato digging for college and Filipino pants, won the award which is given to the basketball player who is most inspirational to his teammates during the season. "Sorny" is the only freshman to win the award, and was without a doubt an integral part of the 1940 Championship Wildcat quintet. He dunked the casaba regularly as well as performing beautifully under the backboards. The former Kittitas Coyote was the only first-year man selected on the first Washington Intercollegiate All-Star squad.

HONORARY CAPTAIN

C. W. C. E.'s free-wheeling scorer and Captain Don Sanders won the Honorary Captain Award for he third successive time. Throughout Don's four years of college ball, he consistently has been the steadying influence. Always a hard driver, smooth-functioning, Sanders has changed the tide of many a close Wildcat fracas. Sanders completed four years of varsity play under Coach Leo Nicholson with an average of better than 10 points per game. Such an important cog as Sanders in Nicholson's championship machine will be hard to replace next season.

Through the efforts of the class president, the system of class dues and finances was put into effect for the first time for all classes. In conjunction with Business Manager Courson, a new system of class cards was worked out, in which the dues are paid in one lump for the entire school year. In return for the yearly payments of 50 cents instead of the usual 75 cents, at 25 cents per quarter, each member received a class card. For students entering in mid-year, a reduction system was instituted.

JUNIORS

As their contribution to the school social calendar, the Junior Class presented the Barn Dance. Traditionally the activity sponsored by the class for all students, it was held this year in the Winter Quarter. Appropriate decorations, supplemented by a beard growing contest, a milking contest and costume contest created the back-to-the-farm atmosphere. Under the direction of Lloyd Mitchell, class president, the dance proved to be one of the most popular of the season, mainly because of its informality.

SOPHOMORES

Celebrating its graduation from the ranks of campus neophytes, the Sophomore Class gave a Kid Party, for members only, in the Social Rooms of Kamola Hall.

The traditional Cupids' Informal near Valentine's Day was presented for over 200 guests with the class president as general chairman. Theme of the dance, Valentine's Day, was carried out through decorations: a 10-foot heart as focal point, red and white streamers stretched to all corners of the room; through program-ticket, in the form of hearts; and refreshments.

FROSH

After planning, building, and executing the largest Homecoming bonfire in many years, the class held its Frosh Mixer to which they invited the Sophomores. The majority of the Freshmen and many Sophomores attended this affair, where "Fall" was the theme.

In the Spring Quarter came the annual Frosh Frolic in honor of the graduating Juniors and Seniors, presented by the Freshmen.

KAMOLA HALL

In a characteristic get-acquainted party, the girls of Kamola started off the social calendar with all residents present.

With the surprising "School Days" skit, the group won honorable mention in the Stunt Night program of Homecoming weekend. Included in their entries was another first-division welcoming sign. Ending winter quarter, the girls presented their "stag" Christmas party.

To score another hit, Kamola presented its annual Winter Moonglow Informal in a Hawaiian setting.

Climaxing the school year came the activities of Spring quarter with the tea for graduating Kamola girls headlining the calendar.

Again to Su Lombard came first prize in the Homecoming Sign Contest. In addition, the girls won the newly instituted Homecoming Parade Float Competition. The skit "Little Nell" won honorable mention at Stunt Night held on the weekend.

In quick success came other additions to the social calendar: a fireside for the men of Munson Hall, and a women-only Christmas party.

Winter quarter saw the presentation of a novel "Song Titles" party again for women only.

The annual spring formal of the dormitory was given in the latter part of that quarter.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Planning its experiences around a three-point program of mental growth, social growth, and school service, Omicron Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, national education honorary, had a busy and successful year.

Among its regular projects were helping with student registration each quarter and sending cards of recognition to all Sophomores who had completed a scholastically successful year as Freshmen.

In addition to these, the chapter was host at the dedication of the College Elementary school. Later, they sponsored curriculum conferences of superintendents, alumni and other educators. Here matters of curriculum changes were discussed, with suggestions referred to the curriculum committee. Book reviews by faculty members were open to the public, under the sponsorship of the group.

To the National Convocation of Kappa Delta Pi, held in St. Louis, the chapter sent President Dickson and Vice President Zook.

On the social side, the Homecoming breakfast, pledge breakfasts and Miss Simpson's suppers are remembered, concluding the calendar with the Spring banquet.

WHITBECK CLUB

The Whitbeck Club is primarily for geography majors and minors, with lectures sponsored by the club open to the public.

The major activity of the group was the maintaining of a music library containing books, magazines, recordings and other music source material for the benefit of the student body. Members of the club acted as custodians for the room, assisting in all work.

Programs at club meetings consisted of music and talks by the members themselves, with the major part of the evening turned over to these presentations.

Besides ushering at concerts and programs, the members supported all music department-sponsored activities on the Campus.

As a climax to the mixers given throughout the year a banquet was held for all girls of the organization.

For the student body came the final of three all-school formals, with the May Prom sponsored by the Off-Campus club in the spring. One of the big dances of the year, it was the major project for the girls' season.

Contributing to the success of Mothers' Day Weekend, the club entertained their mothers at breakfast on the final day.

In the Homecoming program, they aided in the dedication of the College Elementary School and gave an Alumni Breakfast.

At Christmas time, the pre-primary and kindergarten children were entertained at a party. Later, the group aided in the Nursery School Benefit.

Exhibiting books of desirable children's literature and children's art was another project. Another point in the varied program was the presenting of faculty members in lectures on art and literature possibilities for children.

The climax of the year's activities came with the Northwest Conference of A. C. E. held on this Campus, to which the local chapter was host.

In the spring, the camping trip for all members headed the calendar. Other activities included the refinishing of the Women's Lounge in the new gym, the maintenance of a rental bureau of skis and bicycles for college students.

As has always been the custom, the A. W. S. sponsored Freshmen Week Activities, including a mixer for all girls and a tea on the first Sunday of the fall quarter for all students and faculty. To help raise funds for the Student Lounge, a Fashion Show was sponsored, under the direction of Miss Michaelson.

New on this year's program was the founding of a sophomore girls' honorary-service club, with fifteen outstanding members of that class chosen for membership.

Other activities of the fall quarter included the Snowball, all-school formal, and the Christmas Tea.

CRIER SUCCEEDS UNDER KNEELAND

KNEELAND

HasBROUCK

With George Kneeland in the editor's chair and Professor A. J. Matthews as faculty adviser, the Campus Crier, C. W. C. E. Weekly, saw one of its most successful years in recording the events of 1939-40. New departments were introduced and maintained, with columns, "The Book Review," "Campus Korn," "The Grapevine," and "Exchange" gaining much attention. Invaluable was the work of Journalists Jack Hasbrouck, handling the sports editorship in fall and winter terms; his spring quarter successor, Matt Tomas; Columnist Wayne Rogers, contributing "Political Chaos"; Eldon Lindsay, book reviewer and feature writer; Helen Le Febvre, assembly reporter and Loren Trossel, music editor.

Working as business manager, Nick Dieringer kept the newspaper on an even keel financially, supplementing A. S. B. budget appropriations with the sale of advertisement space to Ellensburg business houses.

In completing its year of service, the staff feels it has reported campus events more completely than ever before.

IMPROVED NEWS COVERAGE NOTED

Acting on the assumption that a newspaper improves with age, the staff of the 1939-40 Campus Crier, continued to raise the standard of journalism in improving newswriting technique and broadening the scope of reporter-coverage. By studying the outstanding newspapers of the group of over 100 for which C. W. C. E. exchanges the Crier, and experimenting with new styles, the local staff effected the raising of the news-coverage level.

Regular members of the staff, supporting the editors are named here: Anne Bruketta, Elsa Griffith, Mildred Daniels, Muriel Hansen, Keith Montgomery, Virginia Beck, Lois Erickson, Carol Lippincott, Arlene Hagstrom, Jane Meyers, Louise Perrault, Arlene Rasmussen, Robert Kocher, Albany Rubstello, Marie Rumford, Eldon Lindsay, Jo Sablocki, Jean Lemieux, Wayne Robey, and Helen Le Febvre.

The majority of this group will return to the Crier next year, to maintain the high standards.
